

Ring in the holidays on Main Street November 25

STUART, Fla. - Stuart Main Street and The Historic Downtown Stuart Business Association will be ringing in the holidays with Christmas on Main Street Fri., Nov. 25 from 4:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m.

The event kicks-off the holiday season with the historic lighting of the Stuart Christmas Tree, and includes fun activities and performances for the entire family.

Christmas on Main Street will include do-it-yourself photos with Santa and Mrs. Claus, performances by the Florida Arts and Dance Company, face painting, crafts and cookies and milk courtesy of the Duffy's Sports Grill.

"Christmas on Main Street is a wonderful annual tradition for the Downtown Stuart community," said the Historic Downtown Stuart Business Association Promotions Co-Chair Patty O'Connell. "The free celebration is possible each year thanks to funds raised at Dancin' in the Streets, and our community festivities are a great way to ring in the holidays."

This free event takes place in Haney Circle in Historic Downtown Stuart. All are invited to join in on the celebrations!

Christmas on Main Street is presented by the Historic Downtown Stuart Business Association and Stuart Main Street, and is sponsored by Mulligan's Beach House Bar & Grill, Stuart Boathouse, Sneaki Tiki, Seacoast Bank, Mark Brechbill, PLLC, Coast 101.3 and Treasure Coast Newspapers/TCPalm.
